

Competition Math Camp

Orlando Science Schools Technology campus competition math students just have had an educational and fun/challenging academic camp. Students did practice math and reading tests, writing an essay and interactive online educational tools and activities such as, pooling, swimming, chess, watching a movie, football, ultimate frisbee, football which of all together will improve their academic, social/emotional and leadership skills for self-development, exploration, and well-being.

