

Orlando Utilities Commission

OUC (Orlando Utilities Commission) and OSC (Orlando Science Center) came to OSS to teach the students about the renewable and nonrenewable resources we use daily. They also challenged the 5th grade students to create solar powered carnival rides with at least 3 moving parts that was safe enough to hold passengers. All our students met and exceeded the challenge!

