

Coding Skills

Mrs. Cybulski's class taught our classroom robot how to multiply through using our coding skills that we've learned through the last 2 months.

On the carpet, Mrs. Cybulski created a paper calculator for Spark Sphero, and then the class took turns measuring, programming, testing, and reprogramming Spark, so that he spelled out multiplication math sentences.

We had a great time using our coding knowledge practice our multiplication!

