

Masking Tape Angles and Lines

Mrs. Silvares' class learned about angles and lines this week. They have been practicing acute, obtuse, and right angles as well as recognizing parallel and perpendicular lines. In order to solidify the concept, they used masking tape to form angles and lines on their desk. Then, they used dry erase markers to label each of the angles. They had such a great time and learned a ton!

