Kindergarten

It's been another busy week in Kindergarten! Classes picked up right where they left off last week and have been working hard to catch up. Ms. Haecherl's and Ms. Yamnitz's classes finished up their unit on 3D shapes. Ms. Menoff's and Ms. McGee's classes finished up their unit on numbers to 120. All classes have been working on story elements in reading, by identifying the characters, setting, main idea, and supporting details. We were glad to see everyone back and safe after the storm. Please remember to send back your child's AOR to their classroom teacher as soon as possible!

3rd Grade

The classes enjoyed learning about and celebrating Hispanic Heritage. Congrats to Mrs. Silvares for winning door decorating contest. We are fortunate to be at a school that celebrates diversity!

Ms. Kish and Mrs. Murphee have combined their classes once a week to support the school-wide character ed program, 2nd Step! Their classes watched, Color the World With Kindness, and made bookmarks for each other which explain what the word kindness means to them.

Last week, we attended our 1st field trip to the Fort Christmas Farm- the kids saw chickens, learned about parts of an egg, sat on tractors, pet horses, and learned about the Florida Aquifer- Water is life and so is LEARNING!

Big THANK YOU to all the 3rd grade parents who helped assist with any event listed. We couldn't do it without YOU!

1st Grade

What a week for 1st Grade! All of classes worked so hard even through the heat in our rooms. In Science, all of our classes learned about telescopes and magnifying glasses making objects look bigger. In Social Studies, we talked about need and wants and why we make choices.

Ms. Swank's and Ms. Anderson's classes finished their animal adaptations unit, and read and wrote words with ph and sh sounds. They also practiced reading skills of inferring and identifying rhyme scheme within a poem. For Math, they continued practicing 2-digit addition with regrouping.

Mrs. Ortiz's class read and wrote words with ph and ck and practiced retelling stories. In Math, they continued practicing greater than, less than and equal too.

Ms. Strickland's class finished their unit from last week practicing retelling story elements, and read and wrote words with tricky Y. In Math, they reviewed addition and subtraction strategies and fact families. They also celebrated Pumpkin Day by studying the life cycle of a pumpkin, making pumpkin playdoh, and looking inside a pumpkin to count the seeds.

2nd Grade

Mrs. Bonnell's class is learning about the different types of precipitation and evaporation in science! They have a week-long experiment of a covered cup of water and an uncovered cup of water, and they are testing their hypotheses to see which one will have less water in it due to evaporation on Friday. They also did an experiment of quickly turning a liquid into a gas, also an example of evaporation. The materials the class used were a cup of lemonade (liquid) and a spoonful of baking soda (solid). The reaction between created a gas! In math, Mrs. Bonnell's class is learning about doubles and practicing basic addition and subtraction. In reading, they are learning about different animal features that help them survive.

Congratulations to all of the students who met their AR goal for September! Students had a blast last Friday at the AR Celebration! Students who met their goal chose between visiting a movie room where they watched a movie and enjoyed a snack, a home electronics room where they played on electronic devices with their friends, and a science room where they made and played with slime. Two of our second grade classes had every student meet their goal! Our new recording period began on September 29th and ends on October 25th. We would love for every second grader to reach their goal this recording period! Log on tonight to take check your points and take a quiz!

Fourth grade had an awesome time on our first field trip to F.A.R.M. Days at Fort Christmas. We would like to thank all of our parents that chaperoned for helping us in the sweltering heat! You are very appreciated.

Our next field trip is to St. Augustine on November 4th. Student money and forms are due Monday, October 17th. Please be sure to send those forms in so we can proceed with figuring out our chaperone situation.

In the classroom: Mrs. Anderson's class was introduced to division this week. They are learning how to use models and math manipulatives to divide. They have also begun their novel study of Matilda. Ms. Hurley's class just completed their unit 2 math test and are now starting their division unit as well. They had fun reviewing for their science test using Kahoot! also. They are continuing their whole class read aloud of "Out of My Mind" and still working on their small group novel studies. Ms. Thomas' class just finished their Division Math Projects while Ms. Chardavoyne and Ms. Hurley's classes completed the Everyday Arrays Project.

4th Grade

STEM Fair Projects are right around the corner so don't forget to start thinking about what project you want to work on!

5th Grade

Mrs. Culverwell's and Ms. Farrell's class have been learning about our solar system. They analyzed documents and used evidence to support claims on whether or not Pluto should be considered a planet anymore. They also have been researching and learning in depth about the 8 planets. Students were given freedom in their creations for the projects. Many students presented their findings to their peers through models, PowerPoint presentations, posters, and reports. Mrs. Hiatt's class has been participating in The Pulsera Project, selling bracelets and bags handmade by Nicaraguan artisans. Over $900 has been raised thus far, which will help fund education and housing for families in Nicaragua. This has been a great way for our students at OSES to learn and become more aware and appreciative of how fortunate we all are while also building compassion in their hearts to those in need.
