

Web on Paper

Students will be given tape, yarn, and a Dixie cups. They must create a spider web that is able to hold a weight. First, they must design their web on paper. Then they must recreate their design with the given materials. At the end, they will record observations and decide what could be done next time to make their design better.

