

Kindergarten AR Party and Robots

Kindergarten students experimented with several robots as a reward for meeting their AR goal. Students worked with the robots BeeBot, ProBot, Dot, and Dash. They were able to program the robots to do different activities such as changing directions, making sounds, and changing color. They had such a great time learning more about these amazing robots!

