

Field Trip to the Orlando Science Center

5th grade students attended a field trip to the Orlando Science Center. While there they participated in STEM activities such as building a beam bridge that would hold at least 300 grams, and building a rollercoaster that could last at least 10 seconds. 5th grade students were able to work together to accomplish these goals.

