

Orlando Science Elementary School

The fourth annual STEM Fair was held this Friday. There were science, technology, engineering, art, and math projects all on display for students, parents, and community members to vote on. About five boards were chosen from each classroom to be on display. There will be five projects from third, fourth, and fifth grade moving on to the county expo. There will also be five class projects from kindergarten through second grade moving on as well.

