

We Voted!

The students just had a lesson on the election process, and election etiquette using two book characters! They really loved taking part in the voting process, and even getting to make their own "I Voted" stickers.

