

Transcripts are official records of a student's academic record, including grades, courses, and graduation status. Transcripts are often required as part of the college application process.

To request a transcript, students should check with their high school guidance counselor or registrar. They may need to complete a form or submit a request through an online platform. It's important to be aware of any fees or processing times associated with transcript requests.